

Session 2 Ubiquitous Borders

Presentation 3

Speaker Biography

Dr. Ji-Hye Shin

Lecturer, East Asia International College

Yonsei University, Korea

Ji-Hye Shin is currently a lecturer at East Asia International College, Yonsei University, Wonju Campus, Korea. She received her B.A. and M.A. from Yonsei University, Seoul, Korea, and Ph.D. in U.S./ Immigration history from Rutgers University, New Jersey, USA (2013). Her doctoral dissertation, "Insanity on the Move: The "Alien Insane" in the United States, 1882-1930," examines mental illness among immigrants in the United States at the turn of the twentieth century and discusses the issues of citizenship, deportation, and institutionalization. Her research interests include im/migration, citizenship, race and ethnicity, deportation, and history of medicine.

1 Sang-Hun Choe, "Deportation a 'Death Sentence' to Adoptees after a Lifetime in the U.S.," New York Times, July 2,